Introduction

The National Community College Benchmark Project (NCCBP) provides community colleges with opportunities to report outcome and effectiveness data in critical performance areas, receive reports of benchmarks, and compare results with those of other colleges. A benchmark serves as a data point by which others may be measured or compared. In 2008, 188 community colleges across the country participated in the NCCBP by providing data to the NCCBP.

This report provides a summary of the results indicating how Minneapolis Community and Technical College (MCTC) compares to two groups, a selected peer comparison group and the national comparison group of all participating colleges.

The NCCBP identifies institutions as demonstrating best practices on individual measures within the NCCBP. This is defined as scoring in the top 20% of all participating institutions (80th percentile or above). Measures on which MCTC has been selected as demonstrating best practices are marked in green in the MCTC NATL Rank column in the report. These measures indicate areas of strength for MCTC. Conversely, measures where MCTC scored in the bottom 20% of all participating institutions (20th percentile or below) are marked in red in the report. This indicates that 80% or more of all participating colleges scored higher than MCTC on the measure. The red measures are areas of opportunity for MCTC.

Key for MCTC Compared to the National Benchmark

	Green indicates MCTC scored in the top 20% nationally for that measure.
	Red indicates MCTC scored in the bottom 20% nationally for that measure.

In addition to the national comparison group of all participating colleges, a smaller custom peer comparison group was identified by MCTC's Office of Strategy, Planning and Accountability. This subgroup was selected based on race/ethnicity enrollment breakdown, Career and Technical Education (CTE) and Liberal Arts credit hours split, as well as institution size and location. The following 14 colleges were selected as a peer comparison group for MCTC:

- Burlington County College (NJ)
- Central Piedmont Community College (NC)
- Cincinnati State Technical & Community College (OH)
- Cuyahoga Community College (OH)
- Delaware County Community College (PA)
- Jefferson Community and Technical College (KY)
- Metropolitan Community College & Penn Valley (MO)
- Moraine Valley Community College (IL)
- Nashville State Technical Community College (TN)
- Orange County Community College (NY)
- Raritan Valley Community College (NJ)
- Rockland Community College (NY)
- Trident Technical College (SC)
- Wake Technical Community College (NC)

The following fields will be reported on for each benchmark measure:

Report Fields

Field Title	Description
Benchmark Measures	Measures selected by NCCBP to provide data on key aspects of community college outcomes and effectiveness.
MCTC Scores	Reported score for MCTC for the individual measures.
Peer Group Benchmark	Value is the median of the institutions in MCTC's peer comparison group. The median is the point where an equal number of values are above and below.

Outcome in First Level College Course for Developmental Students

Due to specific interest in the outcomes of students who have completed developmental curriculum, NCCBP added a measure specific to developmental sequence completers. The data below reports on the outcomes of those students who successfully completed the highest developmental course in the end of Fall 2005 and enrolled in a related college level course within one academic year. Thus the rates reported below are the college level course outcomes for students who completed the developmental sequence.

Notes: Course Completion Rate is percent of all enrollments in specified course type which resulted in completing the course and not withdrawing. Enrollee Success Rate is the percent of all enrollments in specified course type which resulted in successful grade outcomes (i.e., A, B, C, or P grades). Fall 2005 Cohort.

Student Satisfaction

American College Test Service (ACT) Student Opinion Survey (SOS)

The SOS gathers information about students' opinions and satisfaction with their college experience.

Benchmark Measures	MCTC Scores	Peer Group Benchmark	National Benchmark	MCTC NATL Rank
Choose to Attend This College ¹	3.9	N/A	4.0
Overall Impression of Quality ²	4.1	N/A	3.8

Note: The Peer Group Benchmark data is not available due to the number of colleges participating in the SOS.

¹ Rated on a five point scale with 5 = definitely yes, 4 = probably yes, 3 = uncertain, 2 = probably no, and 1 = definitely no

² Rated on a five point scale with 5 = excellent, 4 = good, 3 = average, 2 = below average, and 1 = very inadequate.

Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE)

The CCSSE provides information about effective educational practice in community colleges and assists institutions in using that information to promote improvements in student learning and persistence. Five benchmark scores are reported that address key areas of student engagement.

Benchmark Measures	MCTC Scores	Peer Group Benchmark	National Benchmark	MCTC NATL Rank
Active and Collaborative learning	54.1	47.0	49.8
Student Effort	54.9	49.8	49.7

Student-Faculty Interaction	51.7	50.1	50.8
Support for Learners	55.3	49.5	49.8

Administered Spring 2007

Note: Each benchmark score is computed by averaging the scores on survey items that comprise that benchmark. To compensate for disproportionately large numbers of full-time students in the sample, all means used in the creation of the benchmark are weighted by full- and part-time status. Benchmark scores are standardized so that the weighted mean across all students is 50 and the standard deviation across all participating students is 25. Institutions' benchmark scores are computed by taking the weighted average of their students' standardized scores.

* The MCTC NATL Rank value has been reverse coded (original score subtracted from 100).

In these cases, the outcome of the benchmark measure was the reverse of what is meant (e.g., For withdrawal rates, a high number would not mean doing well therefore reverse coding is done).
